

The Wedding Crashers are a professional piano and drums duo from the West Midlands, consisting of Joe Stafford on piano/lead vocals and Jayme Tovey on drums/backing vocals.

As the name suggests they perform a full showcase of live music entertainment for weddings and also parties, corporate events, charity functions, bars and clubs throughout the UK, Europe and even further afield. They are regular performers at the prestigious 'Jam House' in Birmingham, endorsed by Jools Holland.

They have a large repertoire of music, performing songs from the sixties through to the current day and have been working together for over 15 years. During this time they have tailored their performances to suit all age groups, making them an ideal choice for any occasion.

Full PA system and lighting included.

The Wedding Crashers (evening reception)

2 x 1 hour high-energy, live band performances to fit around the arrival of the evening guests, the first dance and the buffet.

At your request the band can also learn and perform your choice of music for the first dance.

The Full Compliment (a full evenings entertainment with The Wedding Crashers and DJ included)

Their DJ Dan Tovey is perfect for the evening entertainment. He plays music to suit all ages and styles whenever the band isn't performing live, filling in the gaps over the night with a constant flow of music and bringing the show to a fantastic end. An ideal compliment alongside the band.
